My Best Friends are Scouts – Forming Life-long Friendships for Over 100 Years

Scouting believes every kid should be given the opportunity to be a kid, to make new friends and memories and, most importantly, to live their life by the Scout Oath and Law – trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean and reverent.

Strong Relationships
Positive relationships are built between Scouts their peers, leaders and parents through the Scouting program.

Self-worth and Usefulness
Scouting helps kids develop a sense of importance as individuals as they conquer new challenges and learn new skills.

Desire to Learn
Scouting develops a real desire for learning by providing opportunities for new experiences and adventures.

Ethics
Scouting's mission is to prepare young people to make the right choices no matter what situations life may throw at them. Building a strong code of ethics is what Scouting is all about.

Setting Goals
Scouting encourages youth to reach beyond what they already know in order to reach their full potential. The Scout Oath encourage each Scout to do and be their best selves.

Social Skills
The time Scouts spend with adults and their fellow Scouts helps them develop essential communication and social skills.

Desire to Learn
Scouting develops a real desire for learning by providing opportunities for new experiences and adventures.
