

PACK LEADER RESPONSIBILITIES

---

The Cub Scout roundup is the single largest recruitment drive done in a year. The event itself is conducted a few weeks after school begins, but the prep work begins in early spring. The focus of this recruitment effort is first- through fifth-grade boys. Presentations are scheduled with local elementary schools.

To be completed before:

- [ ] February 15–
March 20 Packs conduct a leadership and membership inventory to begin the selection process for recruiting new leaders and families.
- [ ] May 1 Packs determine program year leadership and provide Fast Start training to new leaders.
- [ ] June 1–14 Attend district roundup unit chair briefing.
- [ ] June, July,
& August Packs encourage leaders to participate in Basic Leader Training. Packs conduct their annual Pack Program Planning Conference (including new leaders).
- [ ] August 15–
September 20 Packs conduct neighborhood and community promotions, boy talks, youth parent rally event, and submit applications to the roundup coordinator.
- [ ] September 20–30 Follow up with Cub Scouts not assigned to dens. Packs conduct September pack meeting.