The Networking Event for Real Estate and Construction Professionals

Building Connections is the premier gathering for the real estate and construction community in northern New Jersey. Held annually at a new or recently completed real estate project, this event provides a unique opportunity for informal business and social interaction while supporting the Scouting program. The Executive Committee of Building Connections is pleased to offer this opportunity to network, learn from an industry lead panel discussion, all while supporting a worthy cause with from general contractors, subcontractors, and developers, to architects, designers, engineers, brokers and bankers and a multitude of vendors.
